

UniTo

at a glance

Founded in 1404, the University of Torino (UniTo) is one of the most ancient and prestigious Italian Universities. It is a public institution aiming at “higher education, and scientific and technological research” (art. 1, University of Torino Statute).

Venues Located in Piedmont, UniTo can be considered as a “city-within-a-city”, with its 120 buildings in different areas of Torino and in key urban places of the entire Region.

International Promoting culture and producing research, innovation, training and employment for the surrounding environment, UniTo also operates at an international level through partnership arrangements with India, China, developing countries in Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe, the Mediterranean Area and with a number of international organizations.

Tradition Many of the leading figures in 20th century Italian political, social and cultural life, such as A.Gramsci, P.Gobetti, N.Bobbio, C.Pavese and U.Eco graduated from Torino University, as well as three Nobel Prizes Winners for Medicine, S.Luria, R.Levi Montalcini, R.Dulbecco, and two Italian Presidents, L.Einaudi and G.Saragat.

Università di Torino

70.500 students 1300+ PhD students 20% from outside Piedmont Region
3,900+ international students

1400 students enrolled on masters 1st and 2nd level

3.681 professors and staff members

23.000
internships

5.000
agreements with companies

600
agreements with international universities

27 Departments
6 Schools

UniTo

7 Services and Research Centers

5
museums 1 botanic garden

32 libraries
2.700.000+ volumes 29.000 new bibliographic acquisitions

+50.000
visitors

66 first cycle degree

75 second cycle degree

9 five-year degrees

48 first level masters

40 second level masters

30 bi-national double degree programmes

24 PhD programmes

10 specialization courses

49 specialization schools

1 Institute of Higher Studies
(Scuola Studi Superiori)

For any further information, please contact

External Relations Office Susanna Bison

relazioniesterne@unito.it (+39) 3357263663

Press Office Elena Bravetta and Giuseppe Gramegna

ufficio.stampa@unito.it (+39) 3311800560-3389833781

A special focus is on www.politichediatenounito.it